

Project Management in Drug Development: Phase III to Commercialization and Beyond:

2009 Dec 07 - 2009 Dec 08 : 8:30am - 4:30pm;

Learn how to use the fundamentals of project management for late-stage drug development projects, what skills are needed to implement, monitor, and control these types of projects, and how to create an effective project team and develop project objectives, plans, and timelines.

PROJECT MANAGEMENT IN DRUG DEVELOPMENT: PHASE III TO COMMERCIALIZATION AND BEYOND

Mon, 07 Dec, 2009 – Tue, 08 Dec, 2009

Times: 8:30 am – 4:30 pm

Discover how to select the right cross-functional team to ensure project success. Effectively communicate with internal and external stakeholders and prevent communication breakdowns. Develop useful project objectives and project plans. Apply risk management strategies when developing project objectives and making risk-based decisions. Create and manage an achievable timeline and budget to successfully transition from Phase III to commercialization and avoid costly delays.

Register online with credit card at <http://store.kymanox.com/trco.html>

Register online and pay by check at <http://www.kymanox.com/services/ProjectManagementCourse.php>

| | |
|---------------------|----------------------------|
| Attachments: | Info Sheet |
|---------------------|----------------------------|